Let me share some very sweet painting of one of the most famous french rococo [1] painter of the 18th Century. More information from Wikipedia can be found here [2].

The paintings belong to the New-York Museum Frick [3] Collection, from their amazing Fragonard room [4]. They are the first four painting of "the progress of Love" collection, as ordered by Madame du Barry in 1771.

Pictures are in high resolution, 3 to 4MB each.
